

Team workers

Work confidently with others

Be responsible for your own part

Listen to different views

- I can work with others toward the same goal.

- I can reach agreements with others about work.

- I can change the way I behave to suit different roles and situations.

- I show fairness and consideration for others.

- I can take responsibility and be confident about what I can offer the group.

- I can give others support and help.

