IN THIS ISSUE

Dear Parents and Carers,

I hope this message finds you well and that everyone had a restful and enjoyable half-term break. It's heartening to see our students return with enthusiasm and positivity after the break.

A big congratulations to the students who received certificates in this week's awards assembly! Your hard work and achievements are truly commendable, and we're proud to celebrate your accomplishments. I extend my gratitude to the parents who joined us for this special occasion.

Looking ahead, we have some important events lined up for next week. Monday marks the beginning of Anti-Bullying Week, and we encourage all students to participate in Odd Socks Day to raise awareness on Monday. Let's embrace our differences and create a supportive environment for everyone.

On Friday, we will be supporting Children in Need. Students are invited to come to school wearing a spotty item to show their solidarity and contribute to this meaningful cause.

A gentle reminder to all parents and carers: please drive and park with consideration around the school premises. Your cooperation ensures the safety of our students and maintains a smooth traffic flow.

As we approach the weekend, I wish everyone a pleasant and relaxing time with family and friends. Thank you for your ongoing support.

Best wishes,

Mr Broadfield

5 things to ask your kids instead of "How was school?"

1. What made you smile today?
2. Who did you sit with at lunch?
3. If you could change one thing about today what would that be?
4. What was the hardest rule to follow today?
5. Tell me something you know today that you didn't know yesterday.
