IN THIS ISSUE

Dear Parents and Carers,

As we approach the end of another half term, I would like to take this opportunity to say a big thank you to everyone for their hard work and dedication over the past several weeks. It has been a busy term, but we are proud of how much progress our pupils have made, both academically and socially.

One of the highlights of this half term has been the outstanding effort and commitment demonstrated by our sports teams. I would like to offer my congratulations to all those who participated in games, and to those who won and lost with grace and sportsmanship. You have represented the school with pride, and we are all very proud of you.

I would also like to thank all the parents who attended our recent parent workshops, your participation is highly appreciated. The workshops offered an opportunity for us to share information and work together to support the academic and personal development of our pupils. We are delighted with the positive feedback we have received, and we look forward to seeing more parents at future events.

As we approach the half term break, I would like to remind everyone to stay safe and enjoy the well-deserved rest. Please make sure to take time to rest and recharge, so that we can come back refreshed and ready for the challenges that lie ahead in the next half term.

Finally, I would like to remind everyone that school will resume on the 27th of February, and we look forward to seeing all our pupils and parents back then. Thank you again for your hard work and have a fantastic half term break!

Mr Broadfield
